

Special Studies Corrections

Chautauqua's Special Studies' goal is to provide a high quality complete course catalog. While we strive to have no errors in the catalog, we must list corrections for seven courses that were listed incorrectly in the catalog. Please pay particular attention to your course receipts, which will have the correct information posted.

- Course 1212-Heirloom Rugs: Knitted, by Rose Ann Hunter, page 28, should read 8:30-10:30 a.m.
- Course 1231-Young Architects—Design Your Own Victorian House Model, by Elaine LaVinge, page 30, should read 3-4:15 p.m.
- Course 1342-Eating and Other Life Transforming Habits, by Nancy Mramor, page 37, should read $22 for 1 session at the door.
- Course 1430-Good and Evil in American Literature, by Nancy Norris-Kniffin, page 45, should read $22 for 1 session at the door.
- Course 1812-Thomas Merton: Bridges to Contemplative Living, by Robert Silvanik, page 54, should read Week 7, August 4-7.
- Course 1919 – Chautauqua's Architecture, by Av Posner, is Week 4, month should read July not August.
- Course 2215 – Publishing Symposium: Brining Your Work into the World, One-day admission allowed for $25.
- Course 511 – Robotics I & II, by BenchMark Computers, should read 10:30-11:45 a.m.